Faith United Presbyterian Church

Volume II, Issue 3

The Way it Looks From Here

Pastor Terry McLellan

Dear Friends,

It is hard to believe that we are right up on our first year together as Faith United Presbyterian Church. There is much truth to the old saying that, "time flies when you are having fun." Having fun is what we have done this year. We've had fun getting to know one another. We have enjoyed the sometimes grueling task of discerning with God's help and with one another, what direction we are to take as the people of God. That process is never ending. We have had fun in fellowship together and in learning how to work side-by-side in this vineyard the Lord has placed us in. I am truly grateful for the continued "can-do attitudes" of yours. And I look forward to many new experiences of growth in faith and growing together in this second year of Faith United Church.

We will be gathering on Sunday March 4 following worship to celebrate our first birthday. We will have potluck lunch and a time of fellowship and communion around the tables of Fellowship Hall. I truly hope to see you there. I also hope that some of the old-timers will invite some of their friends that have not been seen around here this last year to come on March 4 and join us to see what is happening at FUPC.

We are now in the weeks of Lent. Lent is a time of prayer and preparation for the passion and resurrection of Jesus. Preparation usually involves self-examination and repentance, while we seek a closer relationship with God. This year we have started a study called Rediscovering Val- ues: A Guide for Economic and Moral Recovery. This study is written by Jim Wallis and evangelical Christian social activist who believes that the decisions we make and stands we take as Christians are important to our life together and important to God. Issues which Wallis addresses are hope and courage, transformation and conversion, faith and contentment, compassion, humility and vocation. I hope you will plan to come at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday evenings of Lent to pray and study together. There will be an optional book available to order the first night. I hope that you can participate.

My prayer for you is a blessed Lenten Season.

Grace and peace, Pastor Terry

Bear One Another's Burdens...

Jane Ingebritson

In Galatians 6, Paul tells us to "carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." At Faith United our Stephen Ministers are being trained and organized to do just that. They will provide one-to-one care, prayer, and support to those who are going through a difficult time. The current training class will be commissioned in May. It is not too early to let it be known if you will want a Stephen Minister to minister to YOU! If you wish to be part of a future training class, you can always speak to the current leaders with any questions you may have. Do you want to be trained as a leader? Contact Nancy Smith or Lisa Laclede for more information.

Topics for training sessions in March will include "Bringing the Caring Relationship to a close," "Supervision: A Key to Quality Christian Care—Part 1," and "Supervision: A Key to Quality Christian Care—Part 2." The class meets on Saturdays from 10:00 to 12:30. There will be no meetings March 10 or 17.

Presbyterian Women Celebrate!

Ann Walden

Saturday, 11 February started out as a dismal, cold, rainy day. But by 9:30 it was warm and cheery in the FUPC Fellowship Hall. Nearly 40 women gathered for breakfast around Valentine decorated tables. Just like women of faith throughout the ages, we gathered to meet but mostly greet our sisters. Meanwhile representatives from the Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services were getting ready to share what they do day-in and day-out as they care for the children entrusted to them. Tom Anthony works in Church Relations and Maureen Fryer is involved with foster care. This program opened its doors in 1903 when a dying mother asked her pastor to help her find care for her 4 young children. PCHS offers six main program areas:

- Group Homes - there are 18 in 4 service areas serving 130 children ages 6-19, one of which is in Waxahachie
- Foster Care - 50 foster families care for 115 children ages birth-17
- Adoption Services - offers maternity, adoption and post-adoption care
- Child & Family Programs - specialists in 17 cities help families in crisis
- Education Program - as kids "age out", PCHS help send them to college or trade schools and offer guidance, scholarships & assistance through Aftercare
- Single Parent Family Program - helps single mothers become self-sufficient

The ultimate goal is to reunite children with their families, if not a parent, an aunt, uncle or grandparent. This is a most worthy program of PC (USA) although they receive no direct financial support from the mission budgets of presbyteries, Synod of the Sun, or General Assembly. Check future issues of Words of Faith to find out how we, as a group, can be supportive in these children's lives. If you are interested in a field trip to the Waxahachie Campus, tell Mary Marxer or Ann Walden. Meanwhile if you have further questions, the Waxahachie Program Office number is 1-800-277-4352.

Managing Your Medicines

Your bathroom medicine cabinet can be a mine field. This is especially true if you keep your medicines long after you no longer have the need for them. The potency changes as medicines approach the expiration date, and can be harmful. It is also a risky thing to share medications with family members and friends who have symptoms that are similar to yours. It takes a doctor to make the determination of correct medicines, correct dosages, with the knowledge of the risks that come with modern medicines.

It is also well known that when guests come to your house and use your bathroom, they often learn a lot about you by peeking in your medicine cabinet! This is especially true for children and teen agers who are very curious and sometimes motivated by their interest in trying tranquilizers and pain medicines for the “high” feeling they produce.

We have been cautioned by our city officials not to dispose of these medicines in the municipal water systems, because they are a health hazard. Yet, it is often difficult to know what to do with these outdated medicines. It is also complicated by the conflicting information that some medicines can be flushed down the toilet and others cannot. What are we to do?

A quick search reveals that not all drugstores will take these outdated medicines and dispose of them. Some fire departments and senior centers have periodic campaigns. But you must take your medicines on their schedule, and this is often not convenient.

We are beginning a new program here at Faith United to make disposing of medications easier for our members. The parish nurses have contacted a pharmacy near the church that will accept these unused, unwanted and outdated medicines and dispose of them in an environmentally friendly manner. The program works in two ways. All you have to do is gather up your medicines, put them in a bag and take them to either the pharmacy or the church.

Kay McLellan, R.N.

If you prefer to take your medicines to the church, your parish nurses here at FUPC will be providing a receptacle to accept your outdated medicines and take them to the pharmacy for you. The receptacle will be set up in the Health Resource Room every Sunday morning for your convenience. A nurse will be there to help you if needed. The medicines will be locked up during the rest of the week, and transported to the pharmacy by the nurses. Your medicines will be kept in individual bags that are closed and will protect your privacy.

People’s First Pharmacy is located at 2501 E. Hebron Parkway, Carrollton, TX, 75010, and is open Mon.-Fri. 9am-7pm, Sat. 10am-2pm, and closed on Sat., Sun. and major holidays. The pharmacy will accept tablets, capsules, liquids, inhalers, injectibles, patches, creams, lotions, ointments, suppositories, and sprays. They cannot accept needles, syringes, durable medical equipment, or beauty products.

If you have questions: call: Kay McLellan, R.N. 973-395-3806 or Dottie Cogar, R.N. 972-242-5474 or visit the People-First Pharmacy website.

Rediscovering Values

Rev. Jim Wallis writes, “Every Lent we are asked to make voluntary sacrifices in remembrance of the One who sacrificed all for us. Our fast reminds us that it is God alone on whom we should depend, not on earthly things. During this season in the church calendar, we also watch the suffering of the crucifixion end in the victory of the cross. . . . Rediscovering Values provides a unique opportunity to foster dialogue, build bridges, and reach out to church members, co-workers, friends, and neighbors to build a broader and deeper movement for peace, justice, and spiritual renewal. In times of great change, we have a greater need for deepening existing community bonds and reaching out in new ways.”

This Lenten Season, Faith United will be studying Rediscovering Values, together.

Rev. Terry McLellan

Beginning on Sunday February 26 and continuing for seven weeks on Sunday nights we will gather at 5:00 p.m. at the church to study and pray together. Please plan to come. You may call the church office for more information at 972-243-2866.

There will be a companion book (optional) available to order the night of the first session.

Notes & News from the Pews

New Recruit, Logan Burkham Logan's mailing address while in boot camp is below if members would like to send him a letter. His graduation date is scheduled for 4/20.

Recruit Burkham, Logan, C
2nd Bn Fox Co. Plt. 2134
36001 Midway Ave.
San Diego, CA 92140-2134

Letters from family and friends are an important part of boot camp for a recruit's state of mind. We are encouraged to write positive and encouraging letters and to motivate him. We are not to refer to him as a marine, he is currently a recruit. We have conflicting reports on care packages, so for now we are not to send any. The envelopes are not to be flashy or special scented as this would cause unwanted attention to a recruit.

Helen Bowling moved into her new apartment mid January. Her new address & contact information is:

Helen Bowling,
1320 Branchland Drive, Apt. K
Charlottesville, VA 22901
Phone: 434-964-2449

You are invited! The family of Genevieve Bratton would like you to join them in celebrating Genevieve's 90th birthday on Sunday, March 4.

The celebration will be an open house from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Genevieve Bratton, 2032 Clubridge Drive, Carrollton, 75006.

No gifts please, your attendance will be gift enough!

Kitchen need! In an effort to protect and guard the wood serving table that is now in Fellowship Hall we are requesting potholders and trivets. The thicker—the better! Do you have trivets or potholders that you no longer need or use? You may donate them for use on the table to protect from extreme hot or cold dishes. Contact Margaret Jones with donations or if you have any questions.

North Dallas Shared Ministries

Save the date—North Dallas Shared Ministries will have their annual fundraiser on Friday, May 11 at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church. Dinner will be at 6 pm and the entertainment at 7 pm.

There will also be a silent auction: each member church is asked to donate at least 3 items, we donated 8 last year, can we top this? If you have an item to donate to the silent auction, call me, Lois Duell, at 972-241-4669. More information will follow and sign up will be in April. This is a fun way to support this mission project: good food, entertainment, great auction items, and wonderful fellowship.

Desperate Need—NDSM is in desperate need of ESL (English Second Language) teachers. Teachers will teach one night per week, either Tuesday or Thursday from 6:30 pm until 8:00 pm and you do not need to speak Spanish to an ESL teacher. You can contact Joe de la Cruz, 214 -351-3744 or email: dtennis@aol.com

Word on the street...

Big News! The Methodist Church that sometimes joins us in feeding the homeless bought 2 large pots so hot meals can be prepared during this cold spell. If any of you are willing to work as a group to cook for 400 people - OR, if you know someone who would be willing - we now have the equipment needed and a stove that can handle it. The February meal was a kind of stew and your pimento sandwiches helped round out their meal. The meat and cheese sandwiches were saved for lunch the next day. A Shelter meal always includes 1-2 sandwiches, cooked egg, a banana, something sweet, milk and crackers or chips. If the meal is not hot, potato salad tops off the menu.

I am thrilled to announce the enthusiastic response from the Church of South India. They consider this a worthy mission and both ministers have attended as well as some of their youth. We have taken as many as 18 CSI members on the first Monday and they help prepare the food as well. Be sure to thank them for their help when you see them on Sunday. They would love to have a new Texas friend.

Jesus did it! Now you do it!

Samantha, Paige and I attended the annual Senior High Youth Conference (SHYC) January 27-29. It's a wonderful event full of fellowship and worship. There are about 600 in attendance. The event begins at 8:15pm Friday evening and ends Sunday after Communion worship. One of the things incorporated with this weekend is mission work. This year the mission work was in partnership with "Kids Against Hunger". Founded by Richard Proudfit in 1974, his mission began in Honduras to help feed families in need. There were many trials and tribulations but with his engineering background he was able to collaborate with other food industry experts and came up with a nutritious dehydrated food package. These packets can feed a family of six by adding boiling water. They consist of white long-grain rice, vitamin-fortified, crushed soy beans, a blend of six vegetables, and a chicken-flavored vitamin-mineral mixture. The SHYC team was able to set up work stations so we could help package the ingredients and prep for shipping. The initial goal was to package enough for 47,304 meals (7884 packages). Needless to say all of us had surprised looks on our faces but of course everyone was ready and willing to meet the challenge. There is a science to the packaging, everything has to be measured, placed in the bag in a precise order, weighed and sealed. Working toward the SHYC theme of JESUS DID IT! NOW YOU DO IT!, these youth exceeded the goal by making 50,976 meals (8496 packages). I sensed that all the youth there felt blessed in being able to help with this project. How often do you see a child have a smile on their face while working an assembly line and singing? I am blessed to have had the opportunity to experience it with them. I wish to convey my gratitude to the Session and the Congregation for supporting these youth trips.

2 Timothy 1:7 For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self discipline.

Grace, Peace, and Love

Ann Walden

Most of you are aware of the management change that took place this summer. As a result, they are still in a state of flux and new personnel are adjusting to their responsibilities. Keith is the new executive director. His background is from the business community but he was a volunteer at the Stew Pot for 3 years in a number of positions. You can read more about him in the latest Shelter Speak on the bulletin board.

In the past, jobs were filled by the homeless who knew the system, rules and procedures. Change is difficult for all concerned - FUPC can relate - but most of the previous opportunities to help are still available. For example, they still need recycled clothing, coats, shoes, hats, gloves, socks - anything you wear they need too. You can support the Shelter financially if you cannot prepare food for their meal once a month. We always need paper goods: sacks, spoons and napkins for serving. There is an ongoing need for strong back-packs (their suit cases), razors, blankets, gift cards from Walmart or Target.

God Bless your faithfulness to the needy in body, spirit, and soul.
