FAITHFULNESS

CALL TO CONFESSION

Sin destroys lives, relationships, hope. But through faith in the saving death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, our lives, our relationships, and our future are no longer enslaved to sin. Trust in the love of God and let us confess our sin.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God of immeasurable grace, how shall we measure our sins? Only you know their real dimensions – the history of human disobedience replayed over and over, the ramifications of suspicion, mistrust, and hatred, the multiplication of wrongdoing by generations, the perpetuation of prejudices by unthinking repetition, the aggravation of offenses by the unforgiving and vengeful. All of us stand in need of your grace, mercy, love, healing, and forgiveness. Have mercy upon us; teach us your ways in Jesus Christ so that we may walk in your truth in the power of the Holy Spirit. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

SILENT CONFESSION

You are invited to take a moment for silent confession.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

God, who loves us, does not abandon us or forsake us. Our Savior hears and answers when we cry out from the wastelands of sin. Death cannot bind us, for the risen Christ sets us free. In Jesus Christ you are forgiven!

We are alive to God in Jesus Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit to follow our Lord Jesus Christ.

This text incorporates many of the images associated with the water of baptism in the Thanksgiving Over the Water in The Book of Common Worship, especially nourishment, the calling forth of life, cleansing and renewal, freedom from bondage, and sharing in Christ's resurrection.

In honestly admitting the limits of human ability, this prayerful hymn does not seek a sense of God's presence for self-comfort but for strength and companionship in pursuing the tasks that God sets before us. The author specifically chose this tune to accompany his words.
