CALL TO CONFESSION

Hallie Spence

We confess our sin because everyone has sinned and has fallen short of the glory of God, and we do this together because we are a community, a covenant people. Confident in God's grace, let us confess our sin together.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Hallie Spence

Creator of the universe, everything that we have comes from you. Abundantly you provide for our needs. Even before we speak, you know the deepest desires of our hearts. Graciousness and goodness are your nature. Yet we turn our backs on what is good. We greedily snatch the gifts you hold out to us and hoard them for ourselves alone. We trample upon the works of your hands. Selfishness and greed mark our footsteps. We leave a trail of waste and destruction behind us. What is meant for good, we use for evil. Forgive us, gracious God, and give us a special concern for your world.

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF GRACE

Hallie Spence

Know that God looks upon you, each and every moment of your life, and says you are holy, you are sacred, you are valued, you are worthy, you are God's beloved child. Know that in Jesus Christ we are forgiven! Thanks be to God!

Chapel Hill Preparatory School —It's time to start collecting school supplies for the next school year. We start in July so the teachers will not have to purchase them during the summer. When you're out shopping, how about picking up some things from the supply list that will be available on the collection table near the Church Office. Please take a supply list packet so you can purchase the correct items and brands. We will collect items through Sunday, August 7. Supplies will be delivered to the school the week of August 8.

One of a series of hymns the author wrote for children on the Apostles' Creed, this text (originally in seven stanzas) expands "Maker of heaven and earth." The first stanza became the refrain when the text was later set to a popular tune from the age of King Charles II.
