CALL TO CONFESSION

Seeking to follow Jesus, we often wander down the wrong roads. Impatient with God, we rush off to do things our way. Let us acknowledge our foolishness, that we might receive God's hope for our lives.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Surrounded by so many seductions, O Patient God, we find it difficult to see you in our lives. We think comfort and hope come from the echo chambers of our opinions and the anxious actions of biases. However, our neighborhoods, our families, and sometimes even our churches, are filled with strife and contention. Doing good and seeking justice has become blindly myopic. We cry out for mercy and deliverance, O Listening God. As we wait for your grace to fill our lives and call us down from our isolation, may the Spirit open our hearts to your hope and healing, always giving thanks for Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

SILENT CONFESSION

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

We are all God's children, and God continues to transform each of us into the people we are meant to be.

Though our sins are like scarlet, they have been made like snow; though they are red like crimson, they have become like wool in Jesus Christ!

Thanks be to God, we are forgiven! In the Spirit, may we learn to do good, seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the voiceless and plead for rejected.

I Will Live My Thanks

words & music by Joseph M. Martin & Ruth Elaine Schram

I will live my thanks, O Lord; I will show my gratitude. In ev'ry day, in ev'ry way, I will live my thanks to you. I will share your gifts of love in all I say and do. With songs of praise and acts of grace, I will live my thanks to you.

I will live my thanks, O Lord, with my willing hands and feet. In ev'ry day, in ev'ry way, I will spread your joy and peace. I will share your gifts of love in all I say and do. With songs of praise and acts of grace, I will live my thanks to you.

You have blessed me that I may be a blessing, filled my heart that love might overflow. You have given that I might give to others; you have touched me that I might be an instrument of hope,

And I will live my thanks, O Lord; I will show my gratitude. In ev'ry day, in ev'ry way, I will live my thanks to you. I will share your gifts of love in all I say and do. With songs of praise and acts of grace, I will live my thanks to you. With songs of praise, songs of praise and acts of grace, I will live my thanks to you.

RESPONDING

◆ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Confession of 1967, 9

The reconciling act of God in Jesus Christ exposes the evil in human beings as sin in the sight of God. In sin, humans claim mastery of their own lives, turn against God and their fellow person, and become exploiters and despoilers of the world. They lose their humanity in futile striving and are left in rebellion, despair, and isolation. God's love never changes. Against all who oppose him, God expresses his love in wrath. In the same love, God took on himself judgment and shameful death in Jesus Christ, to bring human beings to repentance and new life.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. And also with you.

Stewardship 2022

Eternally Loved, Intentionally Loving.

It's pumpkin spice season so it must also be stewardship season! As we near the end of 2022 and look forward to 2023, our church continues to face many challenges. This is not a time to pull back in fear, but a time to lean into the promises of God. Our giving is ultimately not about us, or the church or the church budget. We give because God has eternally loved us in Jesus Christ. This is the source of our hope. Yet, there is also a practical side to giving - ministry costs money and the costs of ministry are rising like everything else.

You will receive a packet (including a pledge card) in the mail soon. You may return the pledge card via mail or bring it on Sunday, 11/20. Sunday, November 20 will be Commitment Sunday as we commit ourselves through our 2023 financial pledges to following Jesus in God's mission. We offer and give what we have trusting that Jesus will multiply our giving! Consider an increase in your regular giving to help us be faithful in our neighborhood!

NOMINATING COMMITTEE It is that time of year to discern who God is calling to participate in God's mission by serving on the Session. If you would have interest in exploring this opportunity or if you would be willing to serve on Nominating Committee, please contact Debbie Menefee or Kathleen Ferguson.

SAVE THE DATES This year we will be trying something new! VBS in December! Vacation Bible School will be offered the first two Saturdays in December, 12/3 and 12/10. This will allow neighborhood parents opportunity to do some holiday shopping or just enjoy a day out. We will partner with Iglesia Emmanuel for this ministry. We will need several volunteers! So save the dates! Watch and listen for more information to follow!

FALL WORKDAY We will be doing a fall workday on the church grounds, Saturday, November 5, 9-Noon. We will be trimming, weeding, clearing, etc. Please bring yard tools and implements. We expect folks from Iglesia Emmanuel will also be present! Let's make our grounds have curb appeal as we head into Advent!

Though a lack of punctuation makes this text appear freeform and the flowing tune enhances a sense of movement, each stanza here is firmly anchored by a final weighty word (praise, save, thanks, life, peace, home), a sign of God's eternal presence in an ever-changing world.

HYMN of MEDITATION

One of the oldest American hymn texts in continuous use, this paraphrase of Psalm 137 was created by a president of Yale University while compiling a popular revision of Watts's Psalms of David. The arranger of the tune was the clerk of a Presbyterian church in London.

HYMN of DEDICATION

O God of Every Nation 756 from fear of rat - tling sa - ber, from dread of war's in - crease;

 when ha - tred and di - vi - sion give way to love and peace,

Where hate and fear di - vide us and bit - ter threats are hurled,
 from pride of race and sta - tion and blind - ness to your way, when hope and cour - age fal - ter, your still small voice be heard;
 till dawns the morn - ing glo - rious when truth and jus - tice reign in love and mer - cy guide us and heal our strife - torn world.

If we truly believe that God cares for all people, we cannot limit our prayers and songs for peace to the welfare of our own nation, no matter how much we may love it. This challenging text is set to a stirring Welsh tune, named for a hamlet with a prominent Baptist chapel.
